How to deal with a shopping addicted father?

Theo lives in a nice suburban house with his father, a web-designer. Now, if only there was enough space... With the exception of Theo's room, the house is full of boxes of stuff his father bought on the internet. When Theo has to do a project with some of his classmates, he doesn't want them to come to his house! But too late, they already planned to come. Theo gets very angry and frustrated with all the boxes and his father is finally ready to speak about the "elephant" in the room. Together, they develop a plan to get rid of the boxes and clear out the house, so Theo is ready to receive his friends.
