No matter what her parents keep saying, Mia is terribly afraid of dogs.

But then she finds out that some of her friends have dogs and are not afraid of them at all. Maybe her parents were right when they said that dogs just jumped to say hello, sniffed to see whether you were nice or not, and chased you just to play.

One day, Mia makes a very brave decision: she will go to a dog shelter with her parents and find out about the dogs herself.

First, she realizes that every dog is different. And then, that some are very special.
