The world is full of dogs! They have been our very best friends, companions, and helpers for thousands of years.

This activity book educates young children on some of the history and importance of these amazing animals in our lives in a gentle and fun way.

Full of drawing, finding, coloring and more fun activities, this book will entertain children, stimulate their motor skills and give them a sparkle of curiosity and wonder about our faithful friends.

This book will be a great companion for long trips, rainy days and prepare kids for the arrival of a new puppy, or even to help the entire family appreciate and understand their dog better. An activity book with an educational bite.
