

The Monkey Barber

Be careful with dangerous customers!

Sick and tired of grooming for lice, the monkey makes a trip to the city and is fascinated by a barber shop. He nicks the scissors and a comb and decides to open his own barber shop in the forest. His very first client is the lion, but did he really have enough practice to satisfy this client's needs?

Kids will love Jane Herkenhoff's colorful illustrations and her tongue in cheek story!

Written and illustrated
by Jane Herkenhoff

Age
5+

ENGLISH
TEXT AVAILABLE

21x25cm • 32 pages
World rights available

Dealing with conflicts

Peace & cooperation

Mutual understanding